Maxim of Law

Free people have a right to travel on the roads which are provided by their servants for that purpose, using ordinary transportation of the day.
"The streets of a city belong to the people of the state, and every citizen of the state has a right to the use thereof,.... "The use of highways for purposes of travel and transportation is not a mere privilege, but a common and fundamental right, of which the public and individuals cannot rightfully be deprived ... [A]ll persons have an equal right to use them for purposes of travel by proper means, and with due regard for the corresponding rights of others..."
